

BIOGRAPHY

Aaron Stucki

President,
Communications Solutions

Aaron Stucki is the President of TE Connectivity's Communications Solutions Segment. The segment is comprised of the company's Data and Devices and Appliances business units. Aaron is responsible for all aspects of the segment's strategy, sales, development, and operations globally.

Since joining TE in 2011, Aaron has held several leadership positions including CFO for Consumer Solutions segment, Senior Vice President and General Manager for the Consumer Devices and SubCom business units, and most recently the Industrial and Commercial Transportation business.

Prior to TE, Aaron held several management positions with General Electric, including CFO for Appliances and Lighting Latin America, CFO for high voltage Relays, and Finance Director for EMEA Supply Chain.

Aaron holds a bachelor's in Economics and International Relations from Brigham Young University, Utah. He also attended the Vienna's University of Economics, Austria.